Journey for Jessica

Our agency is trying to spread the word about an amazing young woman and a cause worthy of your attention. The young woman's name is Jessica Huse and this is part of her story....

On August 9, 2009: 18 year old Jessica was on her way to church when she was struck in her VW Beetle by an oncoming car.

On the way to the hospital Jessica went into cardiac arrest and was miraculously revived. Unfortunately she has been left recovering from a Traumatic Brain Injury and left in a "Semi Conscious State" since that day.

The International Brain Research Foundation has accepted Jessica into their highly sought out program that is recognized for ground breaking treatment of TBI and waking patients like Jessica.

Donations of time, money or services are greatly appreciated.
